Cartist, a team of young enthusiastic minds, for the Incredible India Tourist Investors Summit 2016, redesigned a Tata Nano and an Auto-rickshaw by doing its interiors and exteriors in an artistic manner. The idea was to initiate a youth centric approach by a ‘Selfie Booth’ with a glimpse of the rich heritage of the state of Rajasthan.

Rajasthan is a state where heritage is preserved in an impeccable manner. The art which is losing its importance in the pages of history is given a new life by exhibiting on a huge and different platform. The artwork is purely a representation of the rich cultural heritage of the Pink city Jaipur, Nano is being painted by a renowned artist Kanchan Chander. The interiors are done keeping in mind the beautiful prints and colors of the royal families. However, the Rickshaw is painted with traditional Kathputli Art of Rajasthan. The fascinating puppets are drawn on the Auto and vibrant colors are used to grab the attention.
