COMPLIANCE WITH THE CODE OF INTEGRITY AND NO CONFLICT OF INTEREST-

Any person participating in a procurement process will-

- a) Not offer any bribe, reward or gift or any material benefit either directly or indirectly in exchange for an unfair advantage in procurement process or to otherwise influence the procurement process,
- b) Not misrepresent or omit misleads or attempts to mislead so as to obtain a financial or other benefit or avoid an obligation,
- c) Not indulge in any collusion, Bid rigging or any-competitive behaviour to impair the transparency, fairness and progress of the procurement process,
- d) Not misuse any information shared between the procuring entity and the bidders with an intent to gain unfair advantage in the procurement process,
- e) Not indulge in any coercion including impairing or harming or threatening to do the same, directly or indirectly, to any part or to its property to influence the procurement process,
- f) Not obstruct any investigation or audit of a procurement process,
- g) Disclose conflict of interest, if any, and
- h) Disclose any previous transgressions with any entity in India or any other country during the last three years or any debarment by any other procuring entity.

1. CONFLICT OF INTEREST: -

The bidder participating in a bidding process must not have a conflict of interest.

A conflict of interest is considered to be a situation in which a party has interests that could improperly influence that party's performance of official duties or responsibilities, contractual obligations, or compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

A bidder may be considered to be in conflict of interest with one or more parties in bidding process if, including but not limited to:

- a. Have controlling partners/ shareholders in common; or
- b. Receive or have received any direct or indirect subsidy from any of them; or
- c. Have the same legal representative for purposes of the Bid; or
- d. Have a relationship with each other, directly or through common third parties, that puts them in a position to have access to information about or influence on the Bid of another bidder, or influence the decisions of the procuring entity regarding the bidding process; or
- e. The bidder participates in more than one Bid in a bidding process. Participation by a bidder in more than one Bid will result in the disqualification of all Bids in which the bidder is involved. However, this does not limit the inclusion of the same subcontractor, not otherwise participating as a bidder, in more than one Bid; or
- f. The bidder or any of its affiliates participated as a consultant in the preparation of the design or technical specifications of the goods, works or services that are the subject of the Bid; or
- g. bidder or any of its affiliates has been hired or is proposed to be hired by the Procuring Entity as engineer-in charge/ consultant for the contract.

Additional Conditions of Contract

1. Correction of arithmetic errors:

Provided that a financial bid is substantially responsive, the procuring Entity will correct arithmetical errors during evaluation of Financial Bids on the following basis:

- (i) If there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected, unless in the opinion of the Procuring Entity there is an obvious misplacement of the decimal point in the unit price, in which case the total price as quoted shall govern and the unit price shall be corrected;
- (ii) If there is an error in a total corresponding to the addition or subtraction of subtotals, the subtotals shall prevail and the total shall be corrected; and
- (iii) If there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail, unless the amount expressed in words is related to an arithmetic error, in which case the amount in figures shall prevail subject to clause (a) and (b) above.

If the Bidder that submitted the lowest evaluated bid does not accept the correction of errors, its Bid shall be disqualified and its Bid Securing shall be forfeited or its Bid Securing Declaration shall be executed.

2. Procuring entity's right to vary quantity:

- (i) At the time of award of contract, the quantity of work/services originally indicated in the bidding document may vary without any change in the unit prices and other terms and conditions of the bid and the conditions of contract.
- (ii) If the department procures less than the quantity indicated in the bidding documents the bidder shall not be entitled for any claim or compensation except otherwise provided in the conditions of contract.
- (iii) Orders for additional quantities may be placed on the rates and condition given in the contract. Delivery or completion period may also be proportionately increased. The limits of orders for additional quantities shall be 50% of the value goods or services of the original contract.
- (iv) If the Bidder fails to supply the department shall be free to arrange/procure the items and the extra cost incurred shall be recovered from the Supplier.

3. Dividing quantities among more than one Bidder at the time award (In case of procurement of Goods)

As a general rule all the quantities of the subject matter of procurement shall be procured from the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted. However, when it is considered that the quantity of the subject matter of procurement to be procured is very large and it may not be in the capacity of the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted, to deliver the entire quantity or when it is considered that the subject matter of procurement to be procured is of critical and vital nature, in such cases, the quantity may be divided between the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted and the second lowest Bidder or even more Bidders in that order, in a fair, transparent and equitable manner at the rates of the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted.
